

First Aid

This training is required of all staff, and must be completed within 60 days of employment. Lambs Farm follows the American Red Cross first aid curriculum. All persons successfully completing the training receive American Red Cross first aid certification. First aid certification must be renewed every three years.

Adult CPR & Automated External Defibrillator (AED)

This training is required of all staff, and must be completed within 60 days of employment. Lambs Farm follows the American Red Cross adult CPR/AED curriculum. All persons successfully completing the training receive American Red Cross adult CPR/AED certification. This certification must be renewed every year.

Disclaimer: Training materials are the property of The Lambs Farm, Inc. Please do not reproduce or distribute without the express written permission of The Lambs Farm, Inc.